

XM is the best thing that has happened to radio in my lifetime. Leave it alone. Let it grow. Its providing services available nowhere else and that are desperately needed. Standard commercial radio is a wasteland, an annoying blatehr commercials, and no intelligence or substance in its programming. I pay for XM and want all it can provide, music, news, traffic & weather, and everything else. LEAVE IT ALONE. LET IT GROW.